All other argument is futile and a waste of words. McGraw is going to come mighty near winning a pennant in the big league, while we will be very well satisfied if Sullivan's recruits can grab the rag in the Vir-

It was a pretty game from start to inish. What if it did drag at the befinish. What if it did drag at the beginning? Things began to liven up in short order, and there was more than one occasion when the true and loyals could test their lung power. The sour wave, which had been sweeping over local fandom, was pleasurably absent, and among the crowd present could be found the efficials of the nail driving brigade, absolutely harmless, having

Washington and Lee Loses to Pennsylvania State by Score of 7 to I.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Lexington, Va., April 6 .- Pennsylania State took the game this afternoon. The game was hard fought, and was anybody's up to the eighth, when a few errors and hits ran up the score for Pennsylvania. The visitors played good, clean bail, and deserved to win Their form was excellent, and infield work perfect. Efird outpitched the visiting pitchers, but costly errors at critical times, with a hit or two, gave results in the last two innings. Eollen results in the last two innings. Eollen slugged two double sackers, this being the best batting for Pennsylvania. Erown, for Washington and Lee, got three hits out of five times up, and got on base every other time. Washington and Lee lost the best chance to score in the second, when the bases were full and only one out.

There will be a game to-morrow.

CAPTAIN OF QUINT

(Special to The Times-Dispatch | Charlottesville, Va., April 6.—E. W. Kearns, left forward on the Virginia basketball team, has been elected to captain next year's quint. Kearns has played a hard and consistent game for the past two years, winning his monogram both seasons. During the first part of last season he played right guard, but on account of his accurate goal shooting was shifted to right forward.

Gill, H. E. Jones, Bertram, Neff, Campbell, Rixey and Churchman will constitute the squad of old men back, and with these as a nucleus, Captain Kearns should lead a winning team.
